Dixon Housing Survey Loan of $32,000 Gets Truman O.K.

Means Nothing Unless County Board Relents

Expect Issue To Be Revived at Meeting

President Truman approved a $32,000 loan today for a now-scuttled 80-unit housing project for Dixon, The Telegraph learned from the Associated Press.

The loan will be meaningless, however, unless a recent vote by Lee county's board of supervisors is reversed. Two weeks ago the board voted 14-to-10 not to accept 10 per cent of the rentals in lieu of taxes. According to the Public Housing act of 1948, the board, in effect, had to put the project in a tax exemption status.

Issue to be Revived?

As it stands now, the 80-unit, million dollar program is dead. But according to all indications, the issue will again be presented to the county board at its June meeting.

In scuttling the project, the board argued that by taking only 10 per cent of the rentals and waiving taxation, the project would put an "unfair tax burden" on the rest of the county.

The President approved housing bills for 36 communities when he signed the bill for Dixon. They included 2,439 units, totaling $942,-100 in preliminary loans.

Needed For Survey

John Taylor Egan, commissioner of the Public Housing administration, said the preliminary loans will permit local housing authorities to complete surveys and plan the work which must precede construction.

The loans and the number of units included Georgetown, $20,-000, 50 units; and Hoopeston, $20,-000, 50 units.

Expose 'Donations' by Gamblers to Public Official

CARL BRANCH, 24, four-year navy vet now in KSB hospital, who was shot in Amboy about 9 o'clock Thursday night after being chased by police. Police tried to stop him from recklessly driving when the shooting, careening chase began. John Scott, relief policeman in Amboy, brought Branch down behind the post-office after watching him run from a shadow and firing a warning shot in the air. Andrew Meyer, deputy sheriff, put three shots into Branch's car. Meyer charged that Branch tried to run him down when he tried to arrest him at one point during the melee. (See complete details in column 8, this page.)

AMBOYANS ANDREW MEYER AND JOHN SCOTT tell Herb Hames, Telegraph reporter, of a hair-raising, tire-screaming chase punctuated by gunshots which finally ended with Carl Branch, 24, Amboy, being shot in the left leg by Scott. Branch is in KSB hospital, awaiting arraignment under charges of reckless driving. Meyer is a deputy sheriff, Scott a relief policeman. The chase started when Branch took a corner in Amboy on two wheels and spun around, ending when he went down behind the post-office with a steel jacketed, .38 slug hole in his leg.

Bakers Still on Strike; Plumbers Take Walk Next

A complete and hopeless stalemate marked the strike situation today in Dixon between the bakers and their employers and the journeymen plumbers and the master plumbers.

Forty bakers at Beier's are still out, idling another 44 employees. According to an Associated Press bulletin, a bakery operator spokesman said he believed the strike would end Monday.

He was attending a meeting of the Midwest Bakery Employers of Illinois in Bloomington.

Beier at Bloomington

George Beier, president of the local bakery, was in Bloomington for the conference, but "no word" has reached here yet of progress toward settlement.

Reports from Chicago indicated a gloomier picture. Federal mediators again reported "not much progress" in their efforts for a truce.

The strike, which began Sunday, has cut deeply into the bread supplies of 35 downstate cities, although Dixon's current bread condition is not critical. Bread is coming in from Rockford.

The AF of L Bakery and Confectionery workers have struck for wage and security benefits totaling .40c an hour. Their present scale runs between .82c and

Slot Machines Hard to Find, Says Governor

Springfield, Ill., May 19—(AP)—Governor Stevenson today declined to say whether state police will stage more raids on gambling places.

"I don't say there will be or won't be but we are continuing the process of making statewide checks on gambling," he told a news conference.

Stevenson used the state police for the first time on a gambling raid last week. The raid hit a gambling establishment in Venice and another in Madison.

He said one effect of the raid has been to "accelerate a general

Top Dupont 'Exec' Divorced, Remarries

Dupont, 52, obtained a divorce from his first wife last Saturday.

Free-Loaders!!

Washington, May 19—(AP)—Senator Williams (R-Del) says he has heard rumors that free farm commodities are being "distributed heavily" in states with key election contests this year.

He told the senate yesterday that in the rumors, "special emphasis is being placed on the state of Illinois."

Seantor Lucas, Democratic majority leader, is campaigning for re-election in Illinois against Everett M. Dirksen, former Republican congressman.

Racket Probe To Ferret Out Political Ties

Washington, May 19—(AP)—Senate crime investigators made plans today for a two-pronged attack on the underworld, aimed at ferreting out any signs of either incom tax evasion or links with political groups.

Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn), of the senate's special crime investigating committee disclosed both projects while talking to reporters.

He said the committee has decided to throw the main spotlight on "the alleged concentration of property, money and wealth in the hands of organized criminal elements."

To Check Incomes

Along that line, Kefauver said, the group may ask President Truman for an executive order permitting the senators to check the income tax files of suspected criminals.

Numerous mobsters in the past have been sent to prison even when their gangland activities could not be proved, when it was shown that they made more money from undisclosed sources than was reported on their income tax returns.

Kefauver said the investigation into how the underworld piles up its wealth also will deal with organized crime's "connections with governing bodies."

"That means its connections with politics?" a reporter asked.

"Yes," Kefauver replied.

Vandals Break Glass At Industrial Plants

A total of 35 panes of glass of various sizes have been broken out of two places of business in Dementtown on Depot avenue, Police Chief Harry Fischer reported today. The offenses are believed to have been the work of a group of youths. The Dixon Mills and the local Sinclair Oil Co. bulk plant buildings were singled out for the attack which apparently was accomplished with a barrage of stones. At the Dixon Mills 32 panes of glass were shattered while three panes of varied sizes were broken at the Sinclair plant.

Boston, May 19—(AP)—Thirty years with a nagging wife may give you ulcers, a Boston psychiatrist believes.

Such a marital contetemps can cause emotional stresses that may induce ulcers, arthritis or degenerative heart disease.

That's the opinion of Dr. Stanley Cobb, Bullard professor of neuropathology at Harvard Medical School and psychiatrist-in-chief at Massachusetts General hospital, voiced at the 160th annual meeting of the Massachusetts Medical Society.

FEPC Legislation Dead for Session?

Washington, May 19—(AP)—The senate virtually killed the Fair Employment Practices (FEPC) bill for the session today by refusing to block filbustering by southern opponents.

The test came on an attempt to choke off debate on a motion to bring before the senate for consideration this key measure of President Truman's civil rights program.

A cloture (debate limiting) petition fell short by 12 votes of getting the required 64 for adoption. A roll call showed 52 "yes" and 32 "no" votes.

It was the first time a civil rights issue had reached a showdown vote of any kind in the senate since July, 1946, when senators rejected a petition to close debate on an anti-poll tax bill.

A similar anti-poll tax bill was brought up in the Republican 80th congress, but died when the senate failed to reach a vote on a cloture petition in August, 1948. No action was taken on FEPC in the 80th congress.

In the present session, the house has voted to set up an FEPC without authority to enforce its rulings. The senate bill would provide penalities of $500 fine or a year's imprisonment, or both, for violation of the commission's orders.

Axis Sally's Conviction Holds, Ruling

Washington, May 19—(AP)—The U. S. circuit court of appeals ruled today that Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars must serve 10 to 30 years in prison for broadcasting Nazi propaganda during World war II.

The white-haired 49-year-old former actress was convicted more than a year ago in federal district court here. The verdict was handed down by a jury which deliberated 17 hours and 20 minutes. In addition to the sentence of from 10 to 30 years, she also was fined $10,000. She would be eligible for parole after serving 10 years in prison.

Today's development marked another scene in one of the postwar period's longest treason dramas. Miss Gillars first was arrested nearly five years ago when American troops entered Berlin.

Before the downfall of the Nazis, the Maine-born woman's smooth-voiced radio shows became known to millions of GI's. She was the supposedly glamorous radio siren who taught them the haunting strains of "Lili Marlene" which became the world war marching-ing song of the American infantry.

Since Federal Judge Edward M. Curran pronounced sentence on March 25, 1949, Miss Gillars had been held in the District of Columbia jail.

There was no immediate statement concerning whether she would appeal today's decision to the United States supreme court.

"Axis Sally" was flown from Germany to the U. S. to face a ten-count indictment charging her with treason. However, the jury found her guilty on only one count.

Presbyterians Name Dayton Man as Head

Cincinnati, May 19—(AP)—A 63-year-old Dayton, O., minister took over his duties today as moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the U. S. A.

Dr. Hugh Ivan Evans, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church for the past 26 years, was elected moderator yesterday over two other nominees and will preside over the assembly during the next year.

Attorney May Be Disbarred By Law Group

Took Gratuities in Lieu of Fines, Claim

Springfield, Ill., May 19—(AP)—Disbarment proceedings have been filed against the Pulaski county state's attorney by the board of governors of the Illinois Bar association, which accuses him of having taken "donations" from gambling operators.

The board's report was filed yesterday with the state supreme court against Warner Wall, who was elected state's attorney in 1944 and re-elected in 1948.

Wall says he acted for the benefit of taxpayers in his county by using money collected from gambling fines for county purposes.

The board said Wall had failed to enforce laws against gambling and recommended his disbarment as a practicing attorney. It charged he was guilty of practices which "tend to defeat the administration of justice and to bring the courts and the legal profession into disrepute."

At Mound City, Wall gave this comment to a reporter:

"I'm very much surprised and disappointed that the board of governors takes that attitude. I'm guilty of no moral wrong or of doing anything wrong at all.

"I'm sorry that I've become the victim of the present day drive against gambling."

Convenient Donations?

The board, reporting on its findings after a lengthy investigation, said Wall received a "donation" or "contribution" after warrants were issued against gambling places.

It added, however, there was no evidence that he "personally ever retained any money or failed to account for any money that he received."

"There was a schedule, well understood between the respondent (Wall) and other county officials and the gamblers and as long as the operator donated about the right or agreed sum each month no effective court action would be

E. G. Nourse Warns of Bigger Government

New York, May 19—(AP)—Edwin G. Nourse, former chairman of the president's council of economic advisers, says management, labor and other groups must help solve the nation's economic problems if they don't want big government to become even bigger.

He told the annual meeting of the National Industrial conference board last night that a sound dollar, solvent government and a full day's work for a day's pay mean economic stability.

Chiang's Son Says Critical Days Ahead

Taipei, May 19—(AP)—Gen. Chiang Ching-Kuo, elder son of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, said today Formosa faces a critical 100 days.

His statement came as the Nationalist government officially announced its troops still held Quemoy island off the mainland port of Amoy.

Carl Branch In Hospital After Melee

Reckless Driving Charge Preferred

Gunshots and screaming tires splintered the silence over Amboy Thursday night when police chased a reckless driver and finally felled him with a steel-jacketed bullet.

Carl Branch, 24, a four-year navy vet, is in KSB today resting after a wild ride through Amboy, a chase on foot, and after a .38 slug tore into and out of his left leg just above the knee.

Branch, a tree-trimmer who works for INU in Dixon, was shot by John Scott, a veteran of both world wars and a relief policeman in Amboy.

Scott told The Telegraph he was checking the rear entrance of a tavern, while Deputy Sheriff Andrew Meyer went into the front door. He said he saw Branch in a shadow, but that he muttered something and started to run.

Fired "Warning"

The relief policeman said he fired a warning shot in the air, pulled the trigger again but the shell didn't explode, and finally "threw a quick shot" and saw Branch fall. It was about 9 o'clock.

According to Meyer, the chase started about 7:30 when Branch and two companions, Robert Kenney and Alfred Brogan, com-

Recall Mad Poet Shooting in '35

John Scott, who shot Branch, was sitting in the car when Charles Skinner, "the mad poet of Amboy," fatally wounded Olive Derwent in 1935. One of the bullets that hit the Amboy school girl clipped a button off Scott's vest.

The shooting last night was the first in Amboy since the war, when a Kentucky youth shot his father.

Skinner, incidentally, will have a hearing in Lee county circuit court June 12 on whether he was deprived of his rights when he was convicted on a charge of murdering Olive Derwent and sentenced to life imprisonment.

He'll be brought here from Menard for the post-conviction hearing.

ing north from Mendota, took the corner at U.S. 52 and Main street on two wheels and spun almost completely around.

Meyer said he and Elbert Smith, a barber, immediately took out after the trio, which started out east on Main toward the park.

The deputy sheriff said he toured the park, found the car, and started over to arrest Branch, only to watch the '41 model back up and speed away again.

Meyer said he lost the fleeing car and came back to town.

A half-hour later, Meyer said, Branch's car was seen at the Standard Oil station. The deputy sheriff said that when he walked over to arrest Branch, he drove the car right at him.

He said he had to jump to save his life.

Meyer threw three shots at the escaping car, all of them hitting the auto and barely missing Branch.

Branch had stopped at the service station long enough to leave his companions out. Kenny and Brogan were arrested but later released.

Kenny, 26, Amboy, served two years in Joliet after being convicted of larceny in April, 1948.

Brogan, 21, Amboy, was placed on probation for five years after

Less Than 1% of Merchants Do 41% of All Retail Trade

Springfield, Ill., May 19—(AP)—Less than one per cent of Illinois merchants handled more than 41 per cent of the retail business in the state last year, a state revenue department report showed today.

The report covers 1949 payments of the two per cent sales tax by some 130,000 businessmen.

On the basis of tax returns, the department figured 1,200 Illinois retailers did about $3,427,250,000 worth of business between Dec., 1948, and Nov., 1949. All the other 128,800 merchants took in $4,917,-400,000 in the same period.

The report said the 0.92 per cent of the merchants who handled more than 41 per cent of the retail trade were department stores, food and drug chains, car dealers, dime stores, major apparel stores, mail order houses and heavy machine companies.

They paid $68,545,000 in sales taxes last year. Sales taxes turned in by all other retailers totaled $98,348,000.

Can Extend Span of Human Life to 120 Years, Claim

Passaic, N. J., May 19—(AP)—The human life span might be extended to 120 years within a decade if three million dollars were available for special research, a scientist said last night. Present U. S. life span is 67.5 years.

Dr. Thomas S. Gardner told a Passaic Valley meeting of the American Chemical society that the human body breaks down well before its full life potential but that scientists don't know how to stop it.

He said the major cause of death in old age appears to be the deposition of a substance called cholesterol in the blood vessels, heart, muscles, and other organs.

Research has indicated that this can be prevented by the use of substances already known to science, he said, but further study is needed to determine the best dosages for human beings of different ages.

Dr. Gardner, who is associated with Hoffman-La Roche, Inc., of Nutley, a medicine and vitamin firm, said he has already increased the life span of fruit flies 46 per cent by the use of panthothenic acide, pyridoxine, and sodium yeast nucleate.

Boom or Bust??

Springfield, Ill., May 19—(AP)—Anglers fishing out-of-season on Lake Chautauqua near Havana have been hooking an average of six fish a man.

The State Conservation Department said today a check showed that 666 fishermen entered the area during the past week and left with 4,141 fish. Yellow bass topped the list with 2,389 being hauled from the water.

The lake—ordinarily closed this part of the year to fishing—has been opened to aid in experiments.

'Unworthy' Priest Bows to Pope's Wishes; Is Elevated

Rome, May 19—(AP)—Franz Jachym of Vienna—the earnest, 39-year-old priest who last month protested he was not worthy of an archbishop's rank—today was raised to the position in solemn Roman Catholic consecration rites here.

With downcast eyes and a face showing intense emotional stress, the new titular archbishop of Maronea walked among 2,000 German and Austrian Holy Year pilgrims, moving his right hand in its first episcopal blessing. He is one of the youngest priests to hold such high church office.

Msgr. Kachym caused a stir of comment when he dramatically refused to be consecrated in Vienna April 23 and walked out of the church. Pope Pius XII later refused to accept Msgr. Jachym's decision.

The priest today gave no indication of the reasons that had prompted him to his action in Vienna. Rome's Quotidiano, official organ of Italian Catholic action, in a comment upon his earlier action said there had been many instances of prelates who thought themselves unworthy of such honor but who later gave in to higher authority.

Bucky Harris Brings Nats Up Ladder in American Race

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bucky Harris, the Yankee castoff who never has finished last, has his Washington Senators stirring up quite a rumpus in the American league pennant race.

Harris, back at the Washington helm for the third time, has guided the Nats to nine victories in their last 12 starts and to within a game and a half of the league-leading Yanks.

Bucky, fired by the Yanks after leading them to the pennant in 1947 and third in 1948, inherited a last place ball club after spending 1949 at San Diego in the Pacific Coast league.

During the spring the experts didn't rate the Senators much chance of improving their position.

But Harris, with a long managerial record that includes tenures with the Boston Red Sox, Detroit Tigers and Philadelphia Phillies besides New York and Washington, said, "I've never finished last—and I don't intend to start now.

"Give me some pitchers to go with Ray Scarborough and we will surprise a lot of people."

Well, Bucky is getting the help he wanted with emphasis on Sid Hudson who won only eight games and lost 17 last year.

The 32-year-old righthander, who pitched side arm last year but who now is pitching in his customary overhand fashion, turned in his fourth victory yesterday as Washington downed Chicago, 7-3. He aided his cause with a triple in the sixth.

Red Sox Clip Detroit

The Boston Red Sox knocked Detroit out of a first place tie with the Yanks by outslugging the Tigers, 13-12, in a wild game at Detroit. The Yanks and St. Louis Browns had an open date.

The Red Sox piled up an 11-1 lead, thanks to a seven-run barrage in the fourth inning, but the Tigers came back with six in their half of the fourth and nearly pulled the game out in the ninth.

Detroit had runners on first and third, two runs in and only one out in the last inning but Joe Dobson buckled down. He got George Kell to lift a short fly to right and then picked up a Vic Wertz' smash off first baseman Walt Dropo's glove and threw him out to end the game. Kell drove in five runs for Detroit.

Indians Shade A's

The Cleveland Indians shaded the Philadelphia Athletics, 4-3, winning in the ninth when Lou Brissie walked Bob Kennedy with the bases loaded.

The roof fell in on the St. Louis Cardinals who piled up an 8-0 lead over Brooklyn in the first six innings and then went on to blow a nightmarish 9-8 decision at Ebbets Field.

The Dodgers won with four runs in the eighth and five in the ninth.

Four of the ninth inning tallies were pure gifts from Cardinal third baseman Tommy Glaviano, who committed three straight errors.

Jim Russell and Jackie Robinson doubled to start the ninth. Furillo popped out but Gil Hodges beat out a hit and Duke Snider walked to load the bases. Glaviano then made his three miscues.

The New York Giants trounced the Chicago Cubs, 10-4, in a game called after six innings because of rain. Rookie Monte Irvin drove in five runs with a grand slam homer and single.

Scheduled games between Pittsburgh and Boston and Cincinnati and Philadelphia were postponed because of rain.

Evanston Team Favored in 56th Annual Meet

Champaign, Ill., May 19—(AP)—About 558 athletes from 187 high schools will compete today and tomorrow in the 56th annual Illinois Interscholastic track meet at the University of Illinois.

The state golf and tennis finals will run simultaneously with the featured track meet.

Track preliminaries begin at 1 p. m. today. Champions will be named in two of the 12 events—in the discus throw and the pole vault—before nightfall. The rest of the finals will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Evanston Township high school is favored to win the state crown held for the last two years by Lyons Township of La Grange. No school ever has won three straight titles.

Fourteen of the last 15 championships have been won by Chicago suburban teams.

Outstanding individual performer is John Bauer of Benton, rated a cinch to break the shot put record of 55 feet in 1946 by John Mueller of York Township. The 240-pound youth has tossed the shot 58 feet 8 inches this year, one foot under the national record.

Contends for Discus

Bauer also is top contender for the discus championship with a mark of 162 feet ½ inch already under his belt. The record is 158 feet, 11½ inches, set by Oak Park's Chuck Hoag in 1949.

Evanston's standouts are Doug Fuchs in the discuss, John Hunter in the broad jump, Ted Wheeler in the mile, Willie Grant in the hurdles, Bill McHugh in the 880, John Sloan in the pole vault, and Larry Marsh in the shot.

Ulrich Defends Dash Title

Bob Ulrich of Hinsdale is the defending champion in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes. His strongest opponent is La Grange's Jim Caffey, who turned in a sensational :09.5 in the 100-yard qualifying round last week.

The 100-yard record of :09.7 is held by Buddy Young of Chicago and Randall Herman of Oak Park.

Wakefield May Be Traded to National Team

New York, May 19—(AP)—Outfielder Dick Wakefield, center of a controversy that twice went to the commissioner's office, probably will wind up playing in the National league.

There were strong hints today that the 29-year-old prodigal would be waived out of the American league and snatched up by by a club in the older circuit which needs and can afford a $17,100-a-year flychaser.

Dick Wakefield

The Yankees put Wakefield back on the payroll yesterday but told him to tight at his Ann Arbor, Mich., home until he had further word where he's going.

"The Yankees do not want Wakefield," Arthur (Red) Patterson, club secretary, said in announcing the player's reinstatement. "He will not be asked to return."

Wakefield accepted the news placidly, with only mild hints of his earlier threats to quit the game because he may not be wanted.

"I don't know what they're planning now," he said. "As far as I am concerned I still will consider playing only for a major league club. If the White Sox were interested in me some other club in the majors might be, too."

Yanks Act on Own

The Yankees announced they had reinstated the balking outfielder "pretty much on our own" although they had discussed the matter with Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

They said they didn't pay him a penny for the 19 days he was on the suspended list.

The Yankees suspended Wakefield because he failed to report to the Chicago White Sox after being traded to that club for cash and outfielder Johnny Ostrowski.

Police Graft Probe in Chi 'Peters Out'

Chicago, May 19—(AP)—The Cook county grand jury investigation into alleged police corruption appeared to be nearing an end today with no indictments in the offing.

The grand jury, reportedly dissatisfied with progress of its investigation into lawlessness and alleged police bribes in the near north side strip tease bar area, yesterday indicated a desire to hear from undercover agents of the Chicago Crime Commission.

Walter Devereux, the commission's chief investigator, told newsmen that "we frankly admit we don't have evidence that would justify an indictment."

"No useful purpose would be served by calling our secret agents before the grand jury," he added. "Their evidence would not support a successful prosecution."

The grand jury undertook the investigation May 11 after the Crime Commission, an independent organization, issued a report of alleged police laxity in the honky tonk region and alleged police accepted bribes to permit lawless activities.

The grand jurors have heard about a dozen policemen, including Capt. Thomas Harrison, commander of the district in which the alleged activities occurred, and Capt. John Walsh, his predecessor in the area.

All the policemen are reported to have denied charges of the commission.

North side tavern owners and managers, who testified yesterday, also are reported to have denied knowledge of lawlessness or police graft.

Gary Cooper Celebrates 25 Years in Movie Business

By BOB THOMAS

Hollywod, May 19—(AP)—This may come as a shock to you, but it is just 25 years ago that Gary Cooper sauntered onto the screen.

Surprised? So was Coop. Or at least he feigned amazement. He finally admitted that next month will mark 25 years in Hollywood for him.

"But of course I was young," he smirked. "Couldn't have been over this high." He held his hand three feet on the floor.

Fresh out of Grinnell College, the loping Montanan migrated to Hollywood in 1925. But not to crash the movies.

"I was interested in the advertising business," he recalled. "But to pick up some spare money I did some extra work, riding and stunting in some pictures. I had run into some Montana cowboy friends of mine who were doing the same thing.

"Well, I got into a Tom Mix picture at Fox and learned he was getting $15,000 a week. That started me to thinking. I had hoped to achieve $10,000 a year in the advertising business, but it looked pretty small after that.

"So you see I didn't get in the movies from any inward desire to express myself."

There is never any pretense about Cooper, especially concerning acting. Said he: "I didn't know anything about acting. I guess I just picked up things here and there from the directors and actors I worked with." A stickler for realism, he just likes to act naturally.

Although he has been a box-office champion for most of his quarter-century in films, he won't admit it. "How can you tell who's on top and who's third-string?" he asked.

He would only hint at the reason for his success: "Maybe it's because I've had good stories and have done a variety of roles."

Cooper is now making his 60th starring film, "Dallas," which will show him in the role Americans seem to enjoy him in—the strong, silent man of action. He appears ready to stroll through another 25 years of acting, even if it means television.

"We'll eventually make films for TV," he predicted, "but not for a while yet."

Honolulu Hears SOS From Motor Vessel

Honolulu, May 19 — (AP) — Radiomarine station KHK today intercepted a "constant SOS" from the motor vessel Naia in distress about 500 miles northeast of Hawaii.

Radiomarine said the SOS was sent repeatedly without any description of the ship's trouble.

Ex-Nazis in Top Jobs, U. S. Survey Shows

Frankfurt, Germany, May 19—(AP)—About half of all state officials and civil servants in the American zone of Germany are former Nazis, a survey showed today.

The highest per cent of ex-Nazis in office is in Wuerttemberg-Baden, the state recently rocked by a bribery scandal in the court system set up to try Nazis.

In Wuerttemberg-Baden, 56 per cent of all state civil servants and 76 per cent of the top officials were once members of the Nazi party.

In Bavaria, the percentage of ex-Nazis on the state payroll is about 45 per cent, and in Hesse about 38 per cent — with the Hesse percentage soaring to 50 per cent in the upper brackets.

All these figures came from official German sources. U. S. High Commission officials said the latest figures they had were six months old.

German statistics show that the number of ex-Nazi officials has increased greatly in these last six months—and the number is still growing.

American authorities almost unanimously agree, however, that —although the situation is "unsatisfactory"—it does not necessarily mean a resugence of Nazism.

"I do not believe that there is an organized movement to plant former Nazi activities in key positions," said one American official who has spent four years keeping watch on Nazis.

He said "it is rather a question of filling positions with people who are considered by the Germans to be capable of holding these jobs."

DEADLY DRIVING

In Rhodesia, Africa, during a single year, total deaths caused by lions, elephants, crocodiles, rhinos, snakes, domestic cattle, buffaloes, suicide, lightning and drowning, was 350. During the same period, 8000 persons were killed in London by motor cars.

DISCUSS THIS YEAR'S FLOWER SHOW—Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen, one of the flower show's judges; Harold Cook, co-chairman of the show, and Mrs. Raymond Knotts of Berwyn, show judge, past president of the Garden Club of Illinois and very active in the Illinois Garden Walk, posed in the Garden Terrace at the Flower and Fashion show which opened yesterday afternoon. The show will close this evening.

MISS BEANBLOSSOM IN FLOWER MART—One of the outstanding features of this year's show was the Flower Mart. Anne Beanblossom, senior at Dixon high school, is pictured above in the mart. Miss Beanblossom is one of the models for the fashion show which was staged yesterday afternoon and evening and this afternoon and will be a feature of the event again this evening.

Captured U. S. Airmen Admit They 'Confessed' to Spying

Pearl Harbor, May 19—(AP)—Two U. S. airmen indicated yesterday they had admitted a Red charge of spying in order to escape from 18 months of captivity in Communist north China.

Marine Sgt. Elmer C. Bender, 27, Cincinnati, and Navy Chief Electrician's Mate William C. Smith, 32, Long Beach, Calif., said they were treated better "than we could possibly have expected."

But they wouldn't say yes or no at a press conference when asked if they had signed confessions that they were American spies. The Communists in announcing their release May 3 said they confessed. When a reporter asked them what means were used to get "confessions," Bender replied:

"There were no means, so-called. But it was that they gave us the idea that we were to be there from now on. We were shut off from home. We had no news from home. The longer we stayed, the longer it looked as if we were going to stay."

The two were captured Oct. 19, 1948, when their light plane was forced down by engine trouble near the north China port of Tsingtao. The city then was a U. S. Navy anchorage and they were on a training flight.

How were they captured?

"They just surrounded us," Smith said. "There were some fishermen around and they took us to a village."

Bender said the Chinese people he saw "are getting a better deal under the Communists than they were under Nationalist government."

They saw no Russian equipment of any kind. Smith said "the only foreign equipment we saw was American." The Reds captured a lot of equipment from the Nationalists.

Bender kept up his weight. Smith dropped from 200 to 181 pounds.

The only work they had to do was their own washing. Their only pastime was whittling. They got medical attention when they needed it. Smith had trouble with his tonsils and nurses gave him sulfa drugs.

Smith said "the Communists gave us quite a blow-out when we left. There was plenty of chow at that party."

In the interior they heard criticism of President Truman and Chiang Kai-Shek. They heard no word against the Russians or Communist leader Mao Tze-Tung. Neither saw any sign of a Nationalist underground.

Bender said the anti-American propaganda was aimed solely at the U. S. government and "they had nothing against the American people."

Czechs Hang Two as Western Power Spies

London, May 19—(AP)—Two Czechs were hanged in Prague today for spying for an unnamed western power, advices reaching London said.

The Czechs, Ladslav Lindner and Karel Busek, were convicted by a Prague court last November 26.

Senators Cold-Shoulder Idea Of Curtailing Libel Immunity

Washington, May 19—(AP)—Lawmakers today cold-shouldered a suggestion by Owen Lattimore's attorneys that the libel immunity of congress members be curtailed.

The attorney, Abe Fortas, said the suggestion was prompted by Senator McCarthy's accusations against Lattimore and others in pressing his charges of Communism in the government.

McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, has made Lattimore a main target. Lattimore, occasional consultant to the State Department on far eastern affairs, has denied McCarthy's charges under oath.

Republican Senators Wherry (Neb) and Ferguson (Mich) sharply denounced Fortas' idea. Two Democrats, Senators Lucas (Ill) and Kilgore (W Va), called it impractical. They said it would require revision of the constitution.

Lucas and Kilgore have been critical of McCarthy, while Wherry and Ferguson have upheld their GOP colleague.

Under the constitution, members of congress cannot be sued for libel on the basis of anything they say in congress.

Fortas told an American Veterans Committee group yesterday that he realizes a constitutional issue would be raised by any attempt to restrict the immunity privileges.

He said, however, that congress ought to explore the idea of revising its rules so that either the senate or the house, by a majority vote, could require a member to waive his immunity in cases where it was felt the privilege was being abused.

Roy Heather, Oregon, Injured on 'Cycle

Roy Heather, 23, of route 2 Oregon, suffered head lacerations this morning about 2 o'clock when the kick-stand on his motorcycle dropped as he approached a curve in the higaway on East Second street and Steele avenue, throwing him from the machine. Police were summoned to the scene and Patrolmen Kilhian and Camery took Heather to the KSB hospital.

His injuries were dressed and he was released about two hours afterward. The motorcycle was badly damaged.

Jet Plane Crash In Pennsylvania

West Chester, Pa., May 19—(AP)—An Air Force jet plane crashed and exploded last night after th epilot and his passenger had parachuted to safety in a heavy rainstorm.

The pilot, Major Richard H. Burner, 31, of Washington, escaped without injury. His passenger, second Lieut. C. H. Crisevene, 23, sustained a cut lip.

The two-seater jet fighter training plane crashed near Lionville, Pa.—about seven miles from where the two fliers came to earth. The wreckage was scattered over a mile area of farming country.

Major burner said he and Lieut. Crisevene were flying from Indianapolis to Washington, D. C., when they ran into bad weather, although in radio contact with several airfields, they were unable to reach Langley field, near Washington.

The two bailed out at about 8,600 feet, landing close together near a highway. Lieut. Crisevene was treated at Chester county hospital and then the two continued on to Washington.

War Lessons Earle Theme At Open House

"We have learned at least one lesson from the experiences of the late war," John Earle, told an open house at Dixon armory Thursday night, following the Armed Forces parade.

"That is that unless all of our armed forces are directed by one head there will be duplication of effort, waste of manpower, material and misunderstanding of objectives, and abortive, inefficient action."

Earle said the hard-learned lesson was being put into practice with all defense forces under one department, and that Armed Forces day was the first public observance of the step.

After outlining the specialized and technical nature of today's armed forces, and their part in our social order, he said:

"One unit of these forces is your host tonight. The headquarters company, 129th Infantry, Illinois National Guard. They are your brothers, husbands, cousins or close friends, marching shoulder-to-shoulder in a democratic fashion, learning the things that are necessary for the efficient defense of our flag and more than that, learning that the backbone of this nation is the average man and that average is high."

Dixon celebrated Armed Forces day 48 hours early, the official date being Saturday, May 20. The change was made to avoid interference with business hours.

President Truman will sound the keynote tomorrow for the coast-to-coast celebration. He'll speak at a banquet in a Washington, D. C. hotel.

Crack units of all forces will pass in review before the President, Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson and other national barers in a mmoth military parade in the capital.

CAN WE PICK THESE PRETTY FLOWERS?—Sandra Sue and Linda Lou Smith, three and one-half year old twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Smith, Dixon, the youngest models in the fashion show at the Maytime Flower and Fashion show at Loveland Community House, are pictured above. The little Misses just like the many hundreds of guests at the show have an urge to pick the flowers blooming throughout the corridors. The above photo was taken in the Dixon Park district's exhibit.

A YOUTHFUL GUEST AT 1950 SHOW—Young and old alike are enjoying this year's flower and fashion show sponsored by the garden department of the Dixon Woman's club assisted by the Chamber of Commerce and the Men's Garden club. Ann Loan, 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Loan, 212 Fifth street, who is a fifth grade student at St. Mary's school, was admiring the herb garden when we asked her to pose for this shot. The show is now in progress at the Loveland Community Building.

Substance in Human Milk Destroyer of Polio Virus?

Cincinnati, May 19—(AP)—A substance in human milk, the identity of which is unknown, has been established as a destroyer of the virus of polimyelitis.

That report came yesterday from Dr. Albert Sabin, director of infantile paralysis research in Cincinnati's Children's hospital.

Dr. Sabin declared, however, that studies are being continued in an effort to learn just what the substance is that destroyes the polio virus.

He said the same success in fighting polio has been achieved with the milk from a few cows in a herd of 20 now being studied at two farms near Lebanon, O., there again, more work is to be done, he explained, because researchers have not yet been able to tell why some cows give the substance-containing milk and others do not.

Dr. Sabin said that one thing which led to the discovery of the properties of human milk was the experience in a polio epidemic last year in a Canadian Eskimo settlement.

There were 275 cases of the disease. Twenty per cent of the victims became paralyzed and 14 per cent died but in no case did a child under three years old, when children normally are being nursed by their mothers, become paralyzed.

He said it was found that human milk coats the mouth, throat and digestive tract to set up a barrier to the polio virus.

That, it was explained, was of particular importance since it is by way of the mouth that the polio virus enters the human system.

Continuing the studies, 30 Cincinnati mothers were asked to give both blood and milk specimens. The human milk was mixed with polio virus and injected into mice.

Mice which received the mixture survived without paralysis while those which were inoculated with only polio virus developed paralysis.

THE FLORIDA EXAMPLE

Chicago—I have been a Democrat all my life, but I cannot stomach the present administration. President Truman should be impeached for the good of the country. He is greedy for power and trying to force socialism on us. He has no regard for the taxpayers' money and delights in squandering it in useless trips around the country. He takes too many vacations instead of staying in Washington where he belongs. I can think of nothing good about him or his policies.

Instead of going along with Sen. McCarthy and exposing the Communists in high places, he defends them.

I know many who voted for Truman are disgusted and will vote the Republican ticket this fall and get rid of Sen. Lucas, the yes man, and others. We need some new faces in Washington. Florida put the skids under Pepper. Let's show them what we can do in Illinois.

Hobbies by Young Folks On Exhibit

Young people's hobbies played an unusually large part in this year's Maytime Flower and Fashion Show. A new feature was added which was called the junior section; and the museum opened its annual school hobby exhibit at the time of the opening of the show also.

In the Junior section Gene Black who was the winner of a picture award at the state Illinois Federation of Woman's Clubs convention at Chicago, has an exhibit of his paintings. Jeanne Johnston showed a collection of crepe paper dolls which she has made, Kay Fulfs exhibited a "Doll's Tea Table" with doll dishes 70 years old, Murrie Grove and James Murphy had a photography developing set, and Ann Louise Merrick showed a collection of fanciful pots with various kinds of plants.

Beverly Brown had an extensive display of pressed plants and nature study, Carol Hanger has crocheted a number of doll cloths, Mary Jane Saunders designs hats and has a number of different types of miniature models, David Butler has mounted butterflies, Billy Sears is only 8 years old but he has done many drawings and is keeping them in a scrapbook, Lorraine Naffziger has a number of seed pictures, Anna May Winters has made an Abe Lincoln log cabin and rail fence and Gerry Coffey has a number of bouquets in odd shaped containers.

In the educational exhibit Mrs. Helen Rolfe's eighth grade at Lincoln school have worked out a worth-while display showing the different things which may be done to conserve the soil of this country.

In the museum each grade school in Dixon annually displays something in the way of a hobby which is left there for a period of time. This year North Central school has had an organization which functioned as an historical society. They made a six by six replica of early Dixon which is the contribution from that school. Loveland pupils have become especially conscious of reading this year and in this connection a number of them wrote to authors and illustrators to know more about these individuals. They have compiled scrapbooks for their entries. Jean Huyett, Barbara Jean Wade and Donna Claire Villiger are the exhibitors.

A group of boys from St. Mary's have become interested in model airplanes and also a replica of an early electric auto. Boys who have models there are John Gorman, L. V. Venier and Don Nolan. A number of South Central pupils have constructed replica buildings. Bob Roberts shows some European styles made from cardboard and wood and Wanda, Kenneth and Don Frey have made a set of burnt match houses and furniture. Lincoln school is represented by Marilyn Mirriles with her collection of crepe paper story book dols which she made herself.

Two adults hobbies which have caused considerable comment at the flower show are the 51 different varieties of African violets and the indoor goldfish pool with its cement block type of wall and its decorations of African violets.

All of these together with the large number of horticulture and arrangement hobbiests and the adults who exhibited in the collectors corner made the whole show an inspiration for those who like to do something constructive with their spare time.

Franklin Club Holds Banquet

About 125 members and guests enjoyed the annual Franklin Grove Woman's club banquet at the Kersten gymnasium, and served by the Amvet auxiliary.

The tables were decorated with spring flowers and the favors were in keeping with the program of Chapeau-ology.

Miss Carolyn Herbst entertained on the organo during the dinner hour.

Following the banquet, President Mrs. Pearl Kesselring addressed the club and introduced several guests, among them Mrs. Raymond Losey, of Ashton, the new county president. Mrs. Losey spoke to the club using the letters of Lee county—be Loyal, be Energetic, have Endurance, Cooperation, be Optomistic, be Understanding, Necessary, Tactful and Youthful.

Places of honor were given the new officers: President, Mrs. Pearl Kesselring; first vice president, Mrs. Sophia Hayen; second vice president, Mrs. Minnie Hodge; recording secretary, Mrs. Marie Phillips; financial secretary, Mrs. Adelaide Humphrey, and treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Dillon.

The following department chairmen were introduced: Art, Mrs. Bessie Wendel; education, Mrs. Sadie Meyers; radio and motion pictures, Mrs. Minnie Hodge; literature, Mrs. Alice Baker; American citizenship, Mrs. Marian Trottnow; international relations, Mrs. Louise Hay; American homes, Mrs. Sophia Hayen; and gardens, Mrs. Margaret Patrick. The past presidents also received recognition.

Mrs. Evelyn Emmons and Mrs. Helen Hopkins sang, "Beyond the Sunset", as a memorial for Mrs. William Green who died during the year. Mrs. Catherine Conlon accompanied on the piano.

Mrs. Caldarola then introduced the speaker for the evening, Mrs. J. B. Phillips, Chicago, who gave an illustrated lecture on "Chapeau-ology". She discussed shapes of faces, and the styles of hats best suited for each. Mrs. Phillips then fashioned a number of becoming hats for various ladies present.

This program was in charge of the following committee: Mrs. Teresa Caldarola, chairman, Mrs. Catherine Conlon and Mrs. Margaret Patterson.

Ralph M. Ferguson, district engineer for the state highway department today advised the city council of the placing of no parking signs on the north side of East Second street. (State route No. 2) at Noble avenue to the entrance of the driveway to the Reynolds Wire Co. east end plant. The information was passed on that the police department to enforce the regulations.

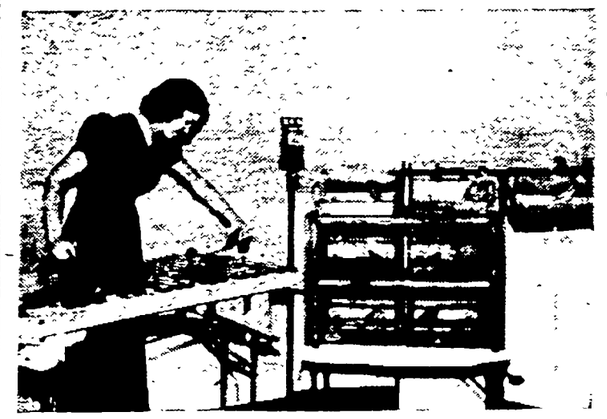
Bible Birds at Bethel



The Bertelle Bible Birds, the most unique and certainly the most exclusive evangelistic team in the whole world, will be at Bethel this week. There are 45 trained birds in the troupe, ranging from domestic and wild American birds to species imported from far off places. A scientific collector's permit from the government allows the trainer to catch and keep native birds. Last year well over 250,000 persons thrilled as the birds went through their routines. They fly through fire, raise the flag, fly in airplanes, ride in a train, jump rope, balance on a ball, turn somersaults, play dead, and one—a grackle called "Mugs"—swallows a miniature sword nearly his body length. In the background of each feature is a canary chorus of highly trained warblers, tenor range American singers and bass gluck rollers. This radio canary choir harmonizes to sacred music played by Bertelle on the vibraharp. The public is invited and there is no admission.

West Strategy Against Reds Better, Hope

London, May 19—(AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson leaves for home today after 10 days of conferences which tightened the west's strategy in the cold war against Communism.

Acheson was in large measure personally responsible for the approval yesterday by the foreign ministers of the 12 North Atlantic Pact countries of new measures to repel both military and economic threats to the west.

He has been the chief proponent of the stategy of knitting the western nations into a tighter, more cohesive group, rather than the loosely-organized alliance which has functioned in the past. He left Washington May 7 with a plan for a permanent council to oversee the military and economic progress of the pact members.

At the meeting ending yesterday the foreign ministers adopted that plan. The council will come into being as soon as the member nations name their representatives. While it probably will be weeks before the first meeting of the new group, American informants say Acheson is convinced the west is at last on the right road.

Of equal importance in the American view is the general approval of a plan to have each of the 12 nations specialize in certain forms of military organization rather than to let each build a separate force equipped for all types of warfare.

Elimination of wasteful duplication, the Americans believe, should help in keeping new defense efforts from being to great a burden on the economies of western Europe. The western nations do not want their constantly improving economic rehabilitation to suffer from military expenditures.

American housewives under 30 have chose yellow as their favorite color for clay tile kitchen wall coverings, according to the Tile Council of America.

"YOU HARDLY KNOW THE ROAD IS THERE!"

YOU won't be the first to say that—not by a long shot.

One of the first things you notice, when you step from another make of car into Buick, is the wonderful difference in the Buick ride.

There are good technical reasons, if they interest you . . .

Soft coil springs all around, the gentlest type of spring man knows how to make.

A stout torque-tube, acting like the husky keel of a battleship to steady the whole carriage.

Low-pressure tires on wide, Safety-Ride rims, that stop heel-over and sway on curves.

Firm, sure, quick-acting shock absorbers, promptly snubbing the after-bounce of the bigger bumps.

The important thing is what these all add up to.

Freedom at last from jounce and jiggle. A level, floating, road-free passage over almost any kind of road, with even the worst of them tamed and gentled as never before.

Add Fireball power to all this—the roominess of wide, deep seats—the lightness of Buick controls and the liquid silkiness of Dynaflow Drive*—and you have a car just too good to miss.

Come try one, won't you? Your Buick dealer will be delighted to demonstrate without obligation—delighted to show you that if you can afford a new car, you probably can afford a Buick

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SPECIAL and SUPER models.

ONLY BUICK HAS Dynaflow

AND WITH IT GOES: HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. Farmers Can Stand 'On Their Own'

Due to duplication of federal services, DeKalb county farmers get advice on crop rotation from at least three different government agencies. More than 100 of these farmers, however, prefer to stand on their own and have put up $40 a piece to hire a farm-management consultant. These facts are revealed in an article about excessive federal farm program expenditures by John Strohm in the June Reader's Digest.

Most DeKalb farmers were "flabbergasted" to learn how many federal farm-agency employes were working in the county, the author reports. Twenty-five of these farmers were asked to guess the number of employes and their average answer was 56, a number most of them thought was too many. The answer was more than three times their guess. In 1949 there were 178 persons employed in DeKalb county to tell its 2500 farmers "what they should do, what they can do and, in some instances, what they cannot do." Uncle Sam spent more than $86,065 in tax money for their services, Mr. Strohm says.

"DeKalb county farmers have been increasingly worried about big government, he continues. "But few realized big government is not all in Washington."

Big government is operating right in the county, the writer claims, and not always to the best interest of the farmer. For instance, 70 farm agency employes required a total of 590 days to sign up, check performance, figure results and pay $35.01 apiece to farmers who cooperated in the government's production marketing administration program. These farmers were paid to spread limestone, spray weeds and plow under clover—practices that 96 per cent of those surveyed said they'd have done anyway.

DeKalb county has fewer federal employes than most counties of similar size, the writer concludes, and it is especially active in efforts to keep things at a county level. "These farmers realize that there is need for some kind of farm program, but they want it kept simple," Mr. Strohm says. "They don't like to see big government get bigger, and controls get more rigid."

Longer and faster passenger trains may be possible through use of new equipment designed to relieve some of the load on locomotives. This is accomplished by a Diesel-driven, under-car generating plant, which supplies auxiliary power to individual passenger cars.

Luminous ceilings, made of plastic through which glareless light comes, may be the lighting system of the future. Mounting many lamps behind a translucent plastic is the most completely adequate way of lighting a room.

The thousands of liquid drops shot out of the nozzle of a spray drying machine can be sorted and counted rapidly and accurately by an electronic device known as a pulse length sorter and counter.

INSINCERITIES—THE MASK

We fool ourselves if we think we can hide behind masks and remain a double person. Either the mask becomes us, or we become the mask. In the Greek drama the actors wore masks. When the Romans took over the drama they called both the mask and the actor—"persona." At first "persona" referred only to the mask; then it was shifted to the person behind the mask. That is true—you become what your mask is. "You don't put a mask on; you put it in," says Gerald Heard.

It is true to say that the mask becomes you, it is just as true to say that you become the mask.

"Always a mask
Held in the slim hand
whitely.
Always she had a mask
before her face—
Smiling and sprightly,
The mask.

"Truly the wrist
Holding it lightly
Fitted the task:
Sometimes however
Was there a shiver,
Fingertip quiver,
Ever so slightly—
Holding the mask?

"For years and years and years I wondered
But dared not ask.

"And then—
I blundered.
I looked behind.
Behind the mask,
To find
Nothing—
She had no face.

"She had become
Merely a hand
Holding a mask
With grace."

It was said of a certain university that it got hold of some wine (some new progressive ideas), but when the wine began to expand and was in danger of breaking the bottles, the authorities decided to save the bottles. They did, and all they had left was empty forms—their education became outer forms veiling emptiness. That is what happens to us, too.

Gracious Master, I do not want to be just an empty person behind a mask. I want to be real—completely real. But there are many things in me twisted and brought up. Help me to bring them up until anything is left behind. Merge my life into a living whole—like Thine!

☆ IN HOLLYWOOD ☆

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

Hollywood—(NEA)—A glamor queen who's been the serpent in the garden of love before the cameras all day can turn into a bookworm with horn-rimmed glasses come sundown.

I got the lowdown on Hollywood's literary tastes at Martindale's book dispensary in Beverly Hills. Two clerks there, Constant B. Sims and Rachel Brand, sell deathless tomes to glamor folk as casually as hot dog vendors hand out the mustard to Sunday bathers at the beach.

More than 75 per cent of Martindale's business comes from the film industry—actors, writers, directors, producers and are directors.

"But," says Sims, "I think they beef about prices more than other people. Once a day some big movie star screams, 'What, $3 for this book!'"

Betty Grable is one constant reader who has Constant Sims all frustrated.

"I've tried to wait on her, but she seems to have a prejudice against men," he protested. "She likes anything that's tough, gutty or earthy. Things by James Farrell, for instance, or books like 'The Man With the Golden Arm.'"

PALS

Constant says he does much better with Katharine Hepburn and Joan Fontaine who aren't above getting real chummy with a book clerk in trousers.

"They know what they want," he says. "Miss Hepburn flies in and out like greased lightning. Doesn't even bother to sign her charge slip. Miss Fontaine hurries, too. Maybe they don't want people to see them and think they're intellectuals."

Farley Granger is a let-me-browse-around customer who always ends up by buying a couple of yards of printed matter.

Constant isn't any too sure about Shelley Winter's influence on Farley's literary taste. He recalls that when Shelley waltzed in with Farley, they stayed strictly away from Santayana and Thomas Wolfe, and paid for a couple of movie fan magazines.

"They discovered their pictures in the magazines and left the place giggling," he remembers.

Constant writes up his biggest orders when Margaret Whiting drops by. "She's an indiscriminate reader," he says. "You can sell her anything but comic books. She buys truckloads."

Books of humor, cartoon collections, biographies of stage and film stars and books explaining how to lick nervous tension and ulcers are best sellers at Martindale's Rachel Brand said.

Cook books, too.

"Take Judy Canova, she always buys cook books," Rachel said. "No, she doesn't cook. Judy just likes to read cook books. Lots of stars do. Maybe it's relaxing. I don't know."

Mrs. Cary Grant—Betsy Drake—is a prize customer. "Her mind is so open," rhapsodizes Rachel—"and helps out starving poets by buying slim volumes of verse." Rachel has yet to see Cary trotting after Betsy with a literary light in his eyes.

Whenever Lana Turner gets ready to say it with books for her pals, Rachel knows exactly what to wrap up. She whispered:

"Lana loves 'The Prophet,' a profound book of East Indian philosophy by Kahili Kibran. She buys copies by the dozen."

FICTION FAN

Peter Lawford, Rachel reports, is a fiction and current events reader. Van Johnson likes novels with supernatural themes and Barbara Stanwyck has lately taken to reading travel volumes about Italy.

Rachel's favorite is Ethel Barrymore. "She buys almost every novel and mystery story published—at least 50 a month. Her chauffeur, I understand, is starting a lending library."

Right now, John Hershey's "The Wall," Lenora Hornblow's "Memory and Desire," T. S. Eliot's play, "The Cocktail Party," and "The Naked Eye," a thriller-diller by a couple of ladies named Martin and Lewis, are the books that have Hollywood agog. Kathleen Winsor's "Star Money" isn't big box-office yet.

"Kathleen's book is hardly the type of novel we would recommend to Oona O'Neill, Ann Baxter or Jeanne Crain," says Constant, echoed by Rachel. "They would freeze up on us, but in a very nice way, of course."

Constant almost forgot.

Ray Milland is a bug about whodunits, preferably the type with a crisp British accent who can smell a body floating in the Thames. Ray sounds off right in front of everybody when the gumshoes and cadavers let him down.

"He lets you know when he hits a lousy book," Constant shudders. "So does Marie McDonald."

A Glimpse Under the Curtain

High Command of Atlantic Pact Hopes to Avoid War

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Great hope for the avoidance of another world conflict can be taken from the action of the 12 Atlantic pact nations in setting up a permanent council to coordinate and direct anti-Communist defense measures, both military and economic.

This development represents the strongest concrete expression of determination thus far exhibited by the combined western powers in their search for security against Red aggression. It is based on the decision that the sole way of winning Russian respect is by a display of power.

Unwelcome Thought

That is the only understandable international language of this atomic age of ours—an unwelcome thought, but true.

Let's analyze this Atlantic pact move to see just what it means. We have here involved the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Italy, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Portugal and Iceland. Moreover a project is afoot to take Western Germany, with its vast Ruhr steel and coal facilities, into the fold.

Concentrated in this brotherhood is the bulk of the industrial productivity of the world. Military strength must be based on industrial power. The resources of the Atlantic powers are far and away stronger than those of the Russian bloc.

Naturally the agreement wasn't reached without misgivings and heartburnings. Some of the members, still suffering from the ravages of the last war, have been fearful that their economic positions wouldn't stand the strain of military costs. Some have feared that they would be used only as expendable basis in event of war with Russia and her satellites.

Strength In Unity

However, the final judgment was that in unity lies strength. So the Atlantic Pact countries have agreed to establish a permanent high strategy board to coordinate the defense, both economic and military, against Red aggression. The job of this board is to block Communism.

The pact foreign ministers meeting in London set up the permanent high command last night, and ordered it into action. Each of the 12 foreign ministers will appoint a deputy to serve on the permanent committee. It is expected that his group will name is own head and the general belief is he will be an American.

There has been much speculation as to who will get this important and difficult assignment. Three names have been prominently mentioned—General Dwight Eisenhower, now president of Columbia university; General Omar Bradley, U. S. Chief of Staff, and W. Averell Harriman, ambassador at large for the Marshall Plan.

Q and A's

Q—What is the difference between trees and shrubs?

A—There is no clear-cut distinction. However, a tree is commonly defined as a woody plant that reaches a height of at least 10 feet, has a single stem, and has a definite crown shape. A shrub usually is less than 10 feet tall and has several stems without a definite crown shape.

Q—Does the president have the power to grant pardons?

A—The Constitution of the U. S. gives the president power to grant reprieves and pardons for all federal offenses except impeachment.

Q—What does the term laureation denote?

A—This term denotes the conferring of a degree by a university. It is an outgrowth of the ancient Greek custom of crowning with laurel and heads of victorious heroes and poets.

Q—How long did it take the Mormons to cross the wilderness from Illinois to Utah?

A—Brigham Young and his followers left Illinois in 1846. It was two years before the migration was completed, but by 1848 the whole band was settled in Utah, beyond the Rocky Mountains and near Great Salt Lake, where the advanced guard under Brigham Young had founded Salt Lake City on July 24, 1847.

Hard Luck Joe Can Blame Self

By OSWALD JACOBY

"I really thought I was going to make that hand," mourned Hard Luck Joe. "All I needed was to find that miserable queen of hearts on my right instead of on my left."

Joe was half right. If the queen of hearts had been favorably located he would have made his contract. However, we shall come back to this point later on.

West opened the deuce of hearts, and East won with the ace. East returned the ten of hearts, and Joe, playing the South hand, hopefully finessed the jack. If this finesse had succeeded, Joe would have made his game contract.

Unfortunately for Joe, West was able to win the second trick with the queen of hearts. He returned a heart, clearing the suit.

Now, of course, South was a perished pigeon. He could not make his contract without setting up diamonds. And the moment South led diamonds East was bound to take the ace and cash the rest of the hearts. The contract was therefore set on trick.

As usual, Joe had created his own hard luck for himself. If he had played the hand properly he would have made his contract. Do you see how?

The opening lead of the deuce of hearts indicated that West had led either from a four-card holding in hearts, or from three to the queen. From any other combination West would probably have led his top heart, rather than his lowest heart.

It was, of course, just barely possible that West had led a singleton deuce of hearts. It was unlikely, however, that East had so many hearts. Moreover, West might not have led a singleton deuce of hearts but might have tried some different suit in view of South's determined bidding in notrump.

Assuming that West held either four hearts or three to the queen, South should have played the king of hearts at the second trick. There would be nothing to fear if each opponent had four hearts. If West had three to the queen, this play would block the suit.

At the third trick, South would lead a diamond, knocking out East's ace. East would now have to lead a heart to his partner's queen. This would clear the heart suit, but there would be no way for East to regain the lead in time to cash his good hearts.

West might make a good try by leading a club through dummy, but declarer would hop right up with the ace and cash his nine tricks: Four diamonds, one club, one heart, and three spades.

Without a Doctor for Three Years, Bowen to Get Refugee

Bowen, Ill., May 19—(AP)—This Adams county town now has the prospect of a resident doctor and a refugee from Russia has a permanent home after 12 years of wandering.

Dr. Giwi Gabliani, who with his wife arrived in the United States early this month, has decided to practice among Bowen's 643 residents. He first must complete a year's internship in an Illinois hospital as required by state law.

Father Was Purged

The 34-year-old physician is a native of the former Georgian principality, now in the Soviet Union. His father, an author and politician, was shot by Soviets in a 1937 purge. The next year he was graduated from the University of Tbilisi, the capital of Georgia, and fled to Poland. There he lived with relatives, also Russian exiles.

In 1939 he passed his medical examination at the University of Warsaw and practiced there until 1942. He then was deported to Germany where he worked in a factory infirmary during the war.

Since the war he has worked in a hospital in Lauingen, Germany. In 1948 he passed another medical examination at the University of Munich with honors the University of Munich. She

Mrs. Gabliani is a graduate of fled Russia in 1938 and assisted in the organization and administration of hospitals in Europe.

Doctor Is Needed

For three years Bowen has been seeking a resident physician. Since last spring the American Legion, the Lions Club and church groups have been campaigning to attract a physician to the community.

Late in April Mrs. Harry Sherrick, wife of the Lions Club president, wrote to the Church World Service Organization. A few days later she was informed the Gablianis were en route to the United States and would be sent directly to Bowen.

A committee of Bowen citizens is responsible for Dr. Gabliani and his wife during the next 18 months. On Monday he will begin his required years of internship at St. Mary's hospital in nearby Quincy

☆ THE DOCTOR SAYS ☆

Right Amount of Exercise Is Condition by Age, Sex

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Too many take too little exercise or none at all, especially during the winter. Their muscles and circulation lack the stimulation which is provided by exercise. Often they make a second mistake by starting out on the first pleasant day of spring by trying to make up for lost time. Three or four sets of strenuous tennis after seven or eight months of desk work can be most undesirable.

How much exercise a person should take to maintain the best possible health is not easy to say. However, the strenuous athletics which is all right for a young man of 18 or 20 can harm the rapidly growing boy or 13 or the man of 40.

Age is one of the factors to take into consideration when considering exercise. The greatest amount of physical exertion can undoubtedly be taken by young men in full maturity, usually from about 18 to 25.

Even at these ages, however, it is possible to overdo, especially for the man who is not "in training." Also as one correspondent recently wrote me, scholastic sports should be for amusement and not so strenuously conducted as to injure the heart.

After the late 20's there is a gradual decrease in the tolerance to strenuous physical exertion, though, of course, the ability is tremendously influenced by practice and "condition."

The sex also influences the amount and kind of physical exercise desirable. There are certain types of exercise which women can stand better than men. For example, most women can stay in cold water longer than men because they have a larger amount of fat under the skin which serves as insulating material.

The muscles of women, however, are not as a rule so well developed as those of men and their organs are so arranged that certain types of physical exertion are frequently undesirable and can cause difficulty.

Watch Heart Trouble

The general health of the individual is an obvious but frequently overlooked factor in deciding what exercise is best. In practically all forms of heart disease the amount of exercise has to be decreased. Exercise after an illness or operation must be approached gradually, as the muscles have become flabby and need to be reconditioned.

The influence of the general physical condition is obvious and should, therefore, always be one of the items weighed in choosing what kind and amount of exercise to indulge in

Dr. Jordan will answer questions from his readers in a special column once a week. Watch for it.

Hazelwood To Be Open For Public

Mrs. C. R. Walgreen again opens her beautiful estate, Hazelwood, to the public Sunday and Monday, May 21 and 22 when the third Illinois Garden Week begins. Visiting hours both days are from 11 a. m. until 5 p. m. with the price $1.20 per person. This includes tax. The money goes to the treasury of the Garden Club to beautify the state of Illinois. Illinois is a beautiful state. It has a wide and diversified scenery. It has a rich and fruitful countryside.

The Garden Club of Illinois, a federation of 169 community garden clubs representing more than 8,000 members is calling attention to this beauty in the third Illinois Garden Week which will be held this year May 21 through May 28. Forty-two farms, estates and small homes and their gardens will be open to tour visitors. Four days will be spent in the beautiful Rock River country and four in the Chicago area.

Sunday and Monday the estates of Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen, at Dixon, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel James Campbell, at Mount Carroll, will be open. Mrs. Walgreen's estate "Hazelwood", is famous for the fine plant material in the extensive flower borders, known to so many through her popular lecture "Twelve Months of Bloom at Hazelwood." Also open will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel James Campbell, Argyll Terrace, and their farm, Argyll Farm, both famous for landscaping.

Tuesday will be Freeport Day and Peter de Jager of Heiloo, Holland, will be in one of the gardens to consult with the visitors on their bulb problems. Wednesday the tour will move on to Rockford where eight houses and gardens will be open.

Wayne, St. Charles and Batavia in the Fox River valley will be hosts to the tour visitors Thursday.

Friday Wheaton gardens and homes will be on view.

Saturday several of the modern homes in the beautiful new suburb, Glenview, will provide a wealth of inspiration to those who plan to build or remodel.

Sunday the tour will end at the interesting homes of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schnering, the Curtiss Candy Company Farm. Here the cattle for which the farm is famous will be on display.

Here also, in the Indoor Arena the Garden Club of Illinois will stage a Flower Show, a small version of the fabulous Chicago Flower Show held at Navy Pier in the days before the war. Entries in the artistic classes will be made by the members of the Garden Clubs but all amateur growers will be welcome to bring their choice blooms and enter the horticulture classes.

This is the third year the Illinois Garden Week tours have been presented by The Garden Club of Illinois.

ADMIRE PRIZE WINNING CHECK—Mrs. J. R. McDaniel, chairman of this year's flower show, "Maytime in Dixon", and Mrs. Charles F. Johnston, president of the Dixon Woman's club, paused at the show's opening yesterday afternoon to admire a $100 check they had received as first prize in Class A in the Community Betterment contest sponsored by the General Federation of Woman's clubs and financed by the Kroger company. Robert Saffron, manager of the Dixon Kroger store, will be present at the presentation of the check to the garden department this evening at the show. The Dixon club's work with the floral trail; the organization of the Men's Garden club; the Dixon Beautiful column in the Dixon Evening Telegraph and the flower shows aided in it's prize winning.

Wa-Tan-Ye Eat At White Pines

A record attendance of Wa-Tan-Ye Women's Service Organization enjoyed a turkey dinner at the White Pines State Park Wednesday evening. At the regular business meeting following dinner, committee reports were heard, including a report of the district meeting held in Mt. Carroll May 7. Recommendations of the board were submitted for discussion and a donation was voted for the Scout Day Camp.

Hostesses for the evening were Lois Harvey, Vi Landt, Lucille Poole and Faith Osborne.

Fashion Show Delights All

The Maytime Fashion show yesterday afternoon and evening was a colorful combination of all types of summer wear from the coolest and most serviceable of sport clothes to the dainties of date dresses and milady's fur fashions for next winter. The stage was decorated with flowering trees and an arch with the words Dixon Beautiful on it. This is in keeping with the theme of the Garden department and the planting of the flowering trees with the proceeds of the money from each of these shows.

Mrs. Harry Wienman was commentator and presided as in past years with her witty remarks and well-worded presentations.

One shop had a colorful and unusual group in styles when they showed the play clothes with the Hawaiian touch in keeping with the flowers from the islands which were imported for the show. The dresses varied from the gayest of play clothes to the frilly garden party frocks. Models are: Mrs. Dorothy McCue, Mrs. Donald Mades, Mrs. Alden Nelson, Mrs. Pauline Bacorn, Mrs. Robert Ryan, Mrs. Gordon Dempsey and Miss Winnie Knapp.

Another store had the two youngest models, little three and a half year old twins Linda Lou and Sandra Sue Smith who showed both sun suits and litte tots dresses. Adult models wore summer dresses, half-size dresses, tailored afternoon outfits and tailored summer suits and also a formal. Adult models are Mrs. Marlis Camery, Mrs. Jeff Riopelle, Mrs. Frances Langen, Mrs. Grace Frey and Miss Jackie Pratts.

One store featured junior miss frocks. These were of varied styles and colors and typical "Maytime" frocks. Their models are Miss Jean Kerz, Miss Judy Jones, Miss Ann Beanblossom and Miss Pat Kirst.

Entirely different was the display by one shop when their model Mrs. Helen McKee showed a number of fur coats including Persian Lamb, silver blue muskrat and silver blue mink paw. She also wore a Canadian Ranch mink cape and a mink scarf where the skins were made into a stoll effect.

To add to the color of the event, corsages and appropriate floral accessories were furnished by florists in Dixon.

Mrs. Myrtle Bishop was accompanist for the entire show.

At the conclusion of last evenings and this evenings performances there was an added manner by Miss Dorothy Butler of Dixon and Bob Green, Sterling.

During the brief business meeting an election of officers was held for the coming year, with the following people to serve: president, Elizabeth Stuck; vice president, Nava Missman; secretary, Mrs. Henry Knelson and treasurer, Sue Hansen.

Jack Keegan was the speaker of the evening and showed colored slides and gave an account of a trip to Mexico which he had taken this past summer as the leader of seven Boy Scouts. With a nice sense of interesting detail and sidelights plus a quiet sense of humor he told of the markets which are so much a center of Mexican life and the shopping the boys did; of their climb up old "Popo," as the natives often refer to their famous mountain, Popocatepetl; their visit to a bull fight; and the trip to the new volcano, Paracutin.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and a social period followed. The next club meeting will be in September.

Attorney May Be Disbarred By Law Group

taken," the report said.

The board said Wall discontinued the practice in October, 1948.

It reported that Wall collected $30,090 between May 6, 1946, and March 8, 1949, and that most of it was "donations" from gambling operators.

It said he paid $4,000 to the county school superintendent for school purposes, that $4,000 was used to buy new seats for the court house and $1,000 went for new linoleum on the court house floor.

Another $2,646 was used for purchase of a county road machine, the board said.

Tool of Gamblers

"Instead of being the sworn leader to stamp out gambling in Pulaski county, he (Wall) became the head of the 'system' to encourage contempt for gambling laws in order that the tax burden of the property owners might be made light," the board declared.

Wall told a reporter:

"I have never profited by this and I have not been connected directly or indirectly with any gambling interest.

"What I did was in the best interests of my people at home. I have tried to serve my people and I have turned in more money for the people than all other state's attorneys put together in Pulaski county. The greatest consolation I have is that my people believe in me.

"Persecution," He Says

"I'm a victim of persecution. All the evidence they have consists of my own statements. I made a report on it to the circuit court.

"I deny there was any conspiracy between me or anybody else."

Wall said all the money collected was by fines on complaints against gamblers.

"Sometimes they paid more than the offense called for," he said. "For instance, in some cases when the fine was $100 they would pay $500. I considered the difference a donation."

He said all the money collected in this manner was duly reported.

"We don't have open gambling here any more," he added.

Wall has 10 days in which to file exceptions to the board's report and 20 days after that to submit an answer. The court is not expected to have a decision on the disbarment, recommendation before its September term at the earliest.

Illinois law requires a state's attorney to be a qualified lawyer.

a larceny conviction in February, 1946.

Meyer, after firing at the car, picked up Paul Liston and Ray Hillison and started another search.

Car Spotted

They were called back, however, when the car with three bullet holes was seen parked about a block-and-a-half from the central business district.

Scott and Meyer then began to make a round of the taverns, on the theory that Branch had come back to one of them.

They said the invariable answer of bartenders was that Branch "just left." It was in the last tavern that Scott and Meyer split assignments, Scott taking the back door.

Scott explained that it was dark when he was firing and had no intention of hitting Branch. Branch went down in back of the postoffice.

A Mihm's ambulance brought Branch to Dixon when Amboy doctors could not be reached.

According to State's Attorney Morey C. Pires, Branch will be arraigned and charged with reckless driving. He'll be held under $1,000 bond.

Desirable Location!

Now is a good time to purchase a residential lot in the most desirable section of Dixon, the Assembly Park, a very restricted neighborhood. There will never be any stores or any business houses whatsoever in the park.

These are the only available, desirable river front lots, commanding a fine view of Rock River.

This area will contain the beautiful and modern homes of Dixon. A neighborhood means more to a family than anything else.

Owners of lots are well known professional and business men who expect to build beautiful homes as soon as building conditions permit. May we shown you these fine lots. There are many beautiful, large shade trees which add greatly to the value of the property.

Proposes Split Season for Waterfowl

Chicago, May 19—(AP)—Illinois sportsmen believe the waterfowl hunting season in the state should be divided into northern and southern sections this fall.

Leonard Schwartz, state conservation director, told a meeting of hunters in Chicago last night he will urge the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service to divide the Illinois season into two zones.

Sportsmen said the season should be split because the weather varies between the northern and southern parts of the state, and migratory waterfowl are passing through the two areas at different times. Thus an identical season for all the state sometimes is too late or too early for one of the two sections.

Speakers supporting the plan included Otto Kerner, Jr., U. S. district attorney, and Mayor Jim McMillen of Antioch, professional wrestler and former University of Illinois football lineman.

Kerner suggested 15 northern Illinois counties should comprise the northern zone. McMillen said the waterfowl hunting season in the northern zone should run concurrently with the Wisconsin season.

F. H. Davis of the fish and wildlife service attended the meeting, which was called by the State Conservation Department to hear hunters' views on what changes should be made in waterfowl regulations for next season.

Slot Machines Hard to Find, Says Governor

improvement in local gambling situations which has been going on for some time."

Stevenson said that slot machines have been going under cover for the last six months and they're getting "harder to find."

In keeping up its reports on gambling, the governor added, the state is paying "particular attention to several counties with respect to slot machines." He did not name the counties.

Stevenson also told reporters he hopes the senate committee will take the same action as the house banking committee which yesterday recommended a one year extension of federal rent controls in cities that want to keep them.

"The bill is not wholly satisfactory but it would relieve the local situation (in Illinois) immensely," he said.

Know Your Funeral Counsel Well in Advance

Usually two or three inquiries are sufficient to make the situation quite clear and lead to an immediate and accurate selection. The questions:

1. Is the executive a man of high standing in your community?
2. Has he a complete establishment including competent, fully-trained and experienced people in all departments and has he all necessary equipment?
3. Are all funeral prices plainly marked?

Satisfactory answers to these questions lead directly to the choice of a National Selected Mortician—the simple, easy way to settle the entire question.

When Hal Retires, He Hopes They'll Omit Gold Watch

By HAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—Big worries rarely make you happy. It's the little day-to-day worries that really make life a pleasure

And one of the things I fret about most often is just what I'll do if my fellow employes give me a gold watch when I retire from work—26 years from now.

Here's Daydream

This problem usually comes into my mind every morning when the alarm clock goes off. Here is my daydream

I have reached the age of 65, and the boys at the office are throwing me a farewell party. Everybody has said a lot of nice things.

It is time now for the big speech by "the old man"—the head of the firm. Actually he is a brisk young man of 19, as by then teenagers will be running the world.

Rising and looking at a card in his hand to be sure he has my name right, the "old man" says:

"Boyle the place won't be the same without you—but we'll do our best to carry on, and I have a feeling we'll be able to. In token of your 41 years of hard work"—the sound of hollow laughter echoes around the room—"I want to give you this small remembrance from your fellow workers, Godspeed!"

The Worrying Begins

He then opens a box and hands me—a gold watch.

Now right here is where my worry comes in. What do I do? Do I accept the watch, tears running down my aged cheeks, and murmur brokenly, "Gee, boys, it's too much. You shouldn't have done it."

Or do I do what I know I'd secretly like to—take the watch, hurl it out the window, give a magnificent Bronx cheer, and stalk out?

I certainly hope I'd have the moral courage to do the latter. Perhaps that would start a trend toward giving men at retirement something more useful.

This whole custom of "bon voyage" gifts at 65 needs to be adjusted to the facts of the individual case. If a man doesn't own a watch by then, why give him one at a time when he may not want to fritter away his strength winding it?

Perhaps he'd rather have a bus ticket to Florida. Or a lifetime pass to Yankee stadium. Or a new hearing aid so he'll be better able to hear his wife's interesting observations on the mistakes he made during his career.

As for myself, all I want is a motor propelled wheel chair and a subscription to the Police Gazette.

Truman Favors French, Germans Pooling Steel

Washington, May 19—(AP)—President Truman's enthusiastic endorsement gave powerful new emphasis today to a French proposal for pooling French and German steel and coal production.

The president welcomed the plan in a news conference statement yesterday, calling it the beginning of "a new outlook for Europe."

Diplomatic officials said the project is in line with American policies for encouraging the closest possible ties between Germany and France and for increasing the total production of western Europe.

They see this specific proposal as contributing eventually to both the economic strength and military security of the western world.

The president said "there will be many difficult problems to solve in developing this far reaching plan" but he was certain "that the kind of imaginative thinking that went into the proposal can work out the details."

Until Truman spoke the official American attitude was sympathetic but otherwise publicly undeclared. The plan was put forward by French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman 10 days ago. It evidently took American officials largely by surprise and they wanted to give it careful consideration before committing themselves.

The American attitude is of great importance because of this government's power over German actions—since it is one of the nations, along with Britain and France, in occupation of Western Germany.

Schuman's proposition calls for pooling French and German coal and steel industries under a joint international authority, for having that authority modernize and increase production and for making the benefits of these steps available to other cooperating nations.

The official French statement of the plan as it came out last week declared that production under the international authority would be offered to the entire world. However, there is no precedent in recent European history for thinking the Russians would cooperate.

Taft Says 'Immorality' in Truman Politics Undisputed

Washington, May 19—(AP)—President Truman's refusal to discuss Republican charges of "political immorality" in his administration was taken by Senator Taft today as showing that the charges stand undisputed.

Taft, Ohio Republican who raised the accusation referred to the no-comment stand taken by Mr. Truman at a White House news conference yesterday.

Didn't Hear Taft

The president, meeting the press for the first time since his cross-country speaking trip, said he had not listened to Taft on a nation-wide hookup Tuesday night or read Taft's speech.

The speech was billed widely as the Republican reply to Truman. The president said he had been too tired from his long trip and too busy to hear or read it.

In it Taft said "the political immorality of the Truman administration has shaken the confidence of the people in their government."

He also said Truman "accused his opponents indiscriminately of greed and privilege but he said not a word about greed and privilege—and crime in his home bailiwick of Kansas City or in the White House itself."

Truman refused a Chicago Tribune reporter's request for comment, cracking that the Tribune would make all the comment necessary on that.

Informed of this at the senate, Taft told a reporter:

He does not answer it, so it stands undisputed."

Truman, however, differed sharply with some of Taft's comments about "obstructionists," a label the president used on his congressional opponents in the big Democratic jubilee Lincoln day at Chicago.

He said he wanted both Democratic and Republican "obstructionists" removed from congress. He explained that an obstructionist was against everything suggested for the welfare of the people. He added that the term did not apply to members of congress who vote against only part of his program.

"Read the Record"

When reporters suggested he name some of the obstructionists he had in mind, the president suggested that the newsmen read the record.

Taft had suggested that even the two Democratic senators from Illinois—senate majority leader Lucas and Douglas—might be called obstructionists because they had opposed some Truman proposals.

Then Taft added "apparently it is just the Republicans the president had in mind."

Starting May 8 the windows will be closed at 5 p.m. but the lobby will be open until 6 p.m. Parcel post leaves the office at 4:20 p.m. so it must be mailed before 4 p.m. to catch this mail. Stamp windows will be open at 8 a.m. and the money order window at 9 a.m. Both will close at noon Saturday.

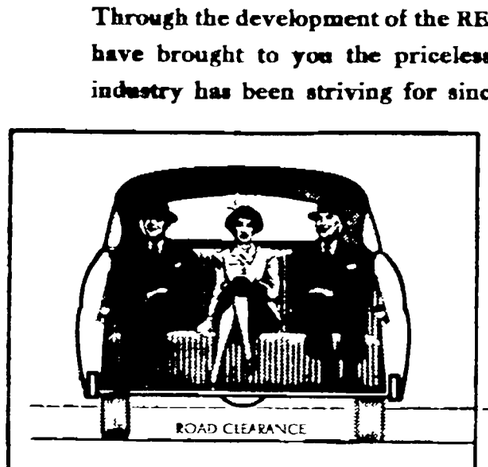
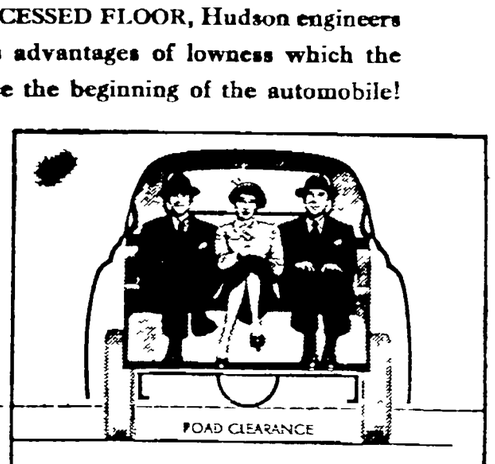
Why the lowest-built car is best for you

Through the development of the RECESSED FLOOR, Hudson engineers have brought to you the priceless advantages of lowness which the industry has been striving for since the beginning of the automobile!



IN HUDSON, the recessed floor ("step-down" design) brings space between frame members, which is wasted in other cars, into the passenger compartment. The result is in America's LOWEST center of gravity (and full road clearance), while providing more head room and seating room than any other car.



IN OTHER CARS, the floor is on top of the frame, so the vital space between frame members is not available for passenger use. The result is a HIGHER center of gravity and either a high roof line or insufficient head room. Seats are narrower, passenger space is reduced.

HUDSON

Most Room! Best Ride! Safest!

Hudsons, with recessed floors, their great array of high-quality, long-life features, and advanced design, are leaders in resale values, as shown by Official Used Car Guide Books!

HUDSON'S new way to build automobiles results in America's lowest-built car

It means new beauty and true streamlining. It provides full road clearance and more room than in any other car at any price. It creates the lowest center of gravity in any American automobile and, therefore, the only real hug-the-road ride—safer, smoother than ever before!

Before choosing your next automobile, we cordially invite you to take "The New Step-Down Ride," and see for yourself how much you gain from Hudson's exclusive "step-down" design with its recessed floor.

Let CERTA-VIN Enrich Your Blood With New Red Cells —Then You Are Active, Stronger—Your Skin Takes on the Rosy Glow of Health

Today many modern people have "Starved Blood" because the food they eat only HALF nourishes their blood stream. Often this is due to gassy stomach and poor digestion, so these people feel weak and look pale.

BLOOD POVERTY

Some victims scarcely know what is wrong with them. They feel like they are tied to a log everytime they try to do something. Their blood cells are shrunken or fagged-out. This is BLOOD STARVATION. Such persons wonder why tonics fail them—why they have to be half sick and half-well—why they can't have their full share of energy.

NEW HEMATONIC Works With Your Food

Such discouraged people will now find—in CERTA-VIN—two liquid elements that regenerate Red Blood Cells. This is a new formula, known as a Hematonic. It is taken before meals and works with your food. Thus your food digests faster and better, with less gas and bloating, so you get the fullest good out of your meals. Soon your watery blood is enriched with Iron and your nerves are energized with Vitamin B. Your red blood count goes up, and you feel better all over.

FEW CENTS A DAY

Benefit comes quickly, usually within 3 or 4 days. And the price of CERTA-VIN is reasonable. You can actually take this new medicine for a Few Cents a Day! So if you are a victim of blood poverty, gassy stomach or lack vitality, don't go on suffering. Get CERTA-VIN at Vallinger's Drug Store.

Rail Strike Unwarranted, Roads Claim

Chicago, May 19—(AP)—The threatened strike Tuesday of AFL switchmen against 10 railroads, the Western Association of Railways said today, "is wholly unjustified."

"This strike threat," the association said in a statement, "is a reckless drive for prestige—an attempt by one small union to outsmart and outdo a big rival union."

Only government intervention could avert the scheduled walkout—set for 6 a.m. against the 10 midwestern and western lines. Although no word came from the White House in Washington after the strike call Wednesday night, the National (Railway) Mediation Board was expected to be called in and attempt to settle the wage-hour dispute.

The board earlier this week mediated the agreement that ended the six-day strike of 15,000 locomotive firemen against five major rail systems. That tieup disrupted much of the nation's rail transportation. A switchmen's walkout, although directed against smaller lines, would delay service on the affected lines, a rail spokesman said.

The AFL Switchmen's Union of North America said the strike would involve 6,000 members. A rail spokesman said 4,000 would be affected. The union's principal demand is for a 40-hour work-week at the pay now received for 48 hours.

Daniel P. Loomis, the association's chairman, said the union's demands also include a 44 per cent hike i the basic daily wage rate and other items which are equivalent to a wage boost of about 50 per cent.

Reds Have H-Bomb Data, Says Sen. Lucas

Washington, May 19—(AP)—Senator Lucas (D-Ill) says "another country knows how to make the atom bomb and the hydrogen bomb."

He later told a reporter he meant Russia has "all the knowhow we have as far as scientific knowledge goes" on the hydrogen bomb.

Lucas, senator Democratic leader, made the remark at the end of a civil rights speech to the senate. He said:

"These are probably the most dangerous peacetime days America has ever experienced. That statement is based on what is going on throughout the world."

Polio in '50 May Break All Records, Fear

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

New York, May 19—(AP)—Polio, infantile paralysis, may break records this year.

Already, there are more cases in the first sixteen weeks of 1950 than for the same period last year, when polio set a new high, 42,375 cases.

These statements are from Dr. Hart E. Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and appear in today's issue of The Journal, New York medicine. They were given out by the Medical News Section of the New York County Medical Society.

After last year's record-breaking epidemics of polio, authorities were cautious about making any sort of predictions about this year. Polio never has been reliably predictable.

Dr. Van Riper reports that 20 cases already have appeared in New York City against 9 for the same time last year.

Polio occurs at all seasons, including the dead of winter. Only the epidemics are confined to summer.

"Despite the pessimistic outlook" Dr. Van Riper says, "prospects for adequate patient care are better than ever before. The reluctance of general hospitals in the past to admit polio patients is rapidly disappearing. Physicians are more alert to the disease and their diagnostic acument is keener.

"Whether or not there will be more than the usual number of poliomyelitis cases this summer, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis stands ready to meet the needs of any community requesting its aid."

Census Bureau Job Now 95% Complete

Washington, May 19—(AP)—With the 1950 population count more than 95 per cent complete, the Census Bureau has decided to have the tentative figures announced locally for cities of 1,000 or more.

The announcements will be made this month and into June.

Original plans had called for local announcements only for counties and for cities having more than 10,000 population. The bureau plans no announcements at all now for towns with less than 1,000 population.

It will be mid-July before the tentative state population figures begin to be made available here. The tentative national figure is not expected to be made ready at bureau headquarters until September.

Costa Rica Pleads For Statue's Return

San Jose, Costa Rica, May 19—(AP)—The Roman Catholic church appealed by radio today for the return of the stolen Virgin of the Angels, venerated as Costa Rica's patroness. The thieves were told to keep the gold and jewels, worth an estimated $1,000,000, ornamenting the black rock statue.

The 300-year-old figure was stolen last Friday from the basilica at Cartago, 20 miles southeast of San Jose. Rewards totalling $600,000 have been offered for its return and three days of national mourning for the loss were declared.

'If Delinquents Blame Radio, TV, Films, Don't Believe 'em

Chicago, May 19—(AP)—Juvenile delinquents may blame their actions on television, radio programs and movies, but don't believe 'em—that's the advice of an Illinois child psychologist.

Dr. Martin L. Reymert so advised yesterday in an address at the 19th Annual Conference of the Illinois Department of Public Welfare's division for youth and community service.

The conference was co-sponsored by the welfare department and the Big Brothers and Sisters Association of Illinois, which elected Sangamon County Judge Harlington Wood of Springfield president.

Dr. Reymert, director of the laboratory for child research at Mooseheart, said Americans should be les prone to blame juvenile misdeeds to entertainment programs.

This kind of superficial thinking," he said, "has the great danger of lulling us into believing that because we have assigned blame, we have solved the problem and that the next step is up to the radio, television and movie people."

In cases where, radio, television or movies may disturb the child, the responsibility still lies with the parents, Dr. Reymert said.

More than 1,500 delegates attended the conference.

The Big Brothers and Sisters association elected George W. Withey, Springfield, executive secretary. Withey is superintendent of the state division for youth and community service.

Other officers, all reelected, are R. H. Eliott of Danville, first vice president; The Rev. Francis P. McNalley of Rockford, second vice president, and Mrs. Philip P. Sachs, Chicago, secretary and treasurer.

Newly appointed directors are Peter R. Scalise of Chicago, A. E. McGrath of Danville, J. Stanley Bradbury of Robinson and Judge Michael Tinney of Wood River.

Springfield, Ill., May 19—(AP)—The job of 'overseer of the poor" is not a separate office but merely a part of a township supervisor's duties, the Illinois supreme court held yesterday.

The court ruled in the case of Martin Ruesch, supervisor of Zion township in Lake county.

The town board of auditors cut Ruesch's salary as overseer of the poor from $4,200 to $3,000 a year. He appealed, contending the job came under a state constitutional provision barring salary reductions or increases for certain public officials during the term for which they were elected.

The supreme court overruled this contention.

Jewish Group Says AMA Discriminatory

New York, May 19—(AP)—The American Jewish Congress (AJC) has charged the American Medical association (AMA) with racial and religious bias.

The complaint was filed yesterday with the state commission against discrimination, which took it under advisement.

The AJA, presenting copies of Journal pages from the March 4 and May 6 issues, said that the situation-wanted ads in the AMA monthly Journal contained such terms as " anglo-saxon," "native-born," "gentile" and "Protestant."

Dallas Takes Diabetes Test to People In Unique Mobile Public Health Project

By ROGER BOATWRIGHT

Dallas, Tex.—For the first time in the nation, a five-minute screening test for diabetes has been taken to the people by the Dallas City Health Department.

Dr. Hugh L. C. Wilkerson, chief of the Diabetes Branch of the U. S. Public Health Department, says the Dallas project is the only mobile testing unit in the United States.

"It is estimated that two per cent of the nation's population have diabetes," he says. "One per cent are known diabetics. The other one per cent are diabetics who do not know they have the disease.

"By taking the tests to the people, the search for the unknown diabetic is greatly aided."

The mobile unit, housed in a trailer, goes to the various suburban shopping centers of the city. During a home show, the free tests were offered the crowds that turned out to see the latest in homes and home furnishings.

A doctor, a nurse, a nutritionist, two laboratory technicians and two volunteer workers staff the mobile testing unit. Persons tested wait the five minutes it takes to determine the results.

The quick tests are made possible by a Hewson Clinitron, mounted in the trailer. The Clinitron is a machine that can make the diabetic screening tests at the rate of 120 an hour.

Only a few drops of blood are necessary for the test. The blood sample is placed in a special test tube. A small amount of water is added to the sample, and the test tube is put in the Clinitron.

The machine automatically heats, drops in four reagent tablets as they are needed and cools the sample. Completing the test cycle, the machine discharges the test tubes to the "completed" rack ready for reading.

MOBILE DIABETES LABORATORY now making the rounds of Dallas is the first such testing unit in the nation.

If there is no suspicion of diabetes, the blood sample solution turns blue. A suspicion of diabetes is indicated by a colorless solution.

The reagent tablets used by the machine were developed by Dr. Wilkerson and Erich Heftman, Ph.D. These men also made it possible for inexperienced volunteer workers to man the Clinitron.

Results of the tests are recorded on an identification card that the person being tested has filled out upon applying for the test. The cards are numbered and the test tubes carrying the blood sample through the testing process bear a corresponding number.

A nurse on duty with the unit gives the results of the tests. If a test turns out positive, the subject is referred to his family physician for further diagnosis and treatment.

Dr. Wilkerson says, "In taking the diabetic test to the people and offering them the opportunity to be tested, control of the disease is aided by early detection."
